

Craig High School

Daily Announcements for Thursday, February 4, 2010

- 🐾 There will be a sign-up meeting for all athletes interested in going out for track on Tuesday, February 9th at 3:30 in the cafeteria.
- 🐾 Next week Monday thru Wednesday NHS will run a Penny War between advisories for a double lunch. If freshmen win, they will get a double lunch off campus. Pennies count for the positive and silver or dollars count for the negative. Please donate generously.
- 🐾 Would you like to be the lucky person to pie Mr. Reif? If so, please be sure to purchase your raffle tickets after school this week at the front entrance. Tickets are only 25 cents each or 5 for a dollar.
- 🐾 Auditions for the spring play, That's My Cousin, will take place on Tuesday, February 9th in the Small Auditorium from 3:30-5:00. Audition material is available outside room 505. Any questions please see Mrs. Alling.
- 🐾 Attention Juniors: We will have our first Prom meeting on Friday, February 5th at 7:30 a.m. in the Small Auditorium. Come and help plan Prom!
- 🐾 Application packets for Badger Boys State and Badger Girls State are available in the Main Office. Badger State is open to all juniors and is a unique opportunity to learn about citizenship and governmental procedures at no charge. Badger Boys will be held June 13-20 at Ripon College; Badger Girls will be held June 20-25 in Oshkosh. Applications must be returned to the Main Office by Wednesday, February 17th.
- 🐾 Can you make a 3 point basketball shot? The International Business class would like to find out. If we draw your raffle ticket number, you will get a chance to win half of what we sell in raffle tickets at the Craig vs. Parker Girls Basketball game Friday night, right here at Craig. Be sure to be here tomorrow night and "give it your best shot"!
